

"LAZY ROBES" THEY CALL NEW BOUDOIR GOWN, AND THEY'RE WELL NAMED

BY BETTY BROWN

They might be made for little Miss Chrysanthemum herself, the lounging robes that have come in with the new styles this fall, but as a matter of fact they were designed for the comfort and adornment of Miss America.

One of the prettiest of these lounging robes or "lazy robes" that I've seen this season was designed for Miss Gertrude Volk of the Heisen Folies de Vogue, and she's wearing it in this picture, posed especially for The Day Book. It's made of the famous "chirimen" or Japanese crepe, in a curious shade of dull green, and the design is also oriental.

—O—O— GRAPE JUICE SHERBET

Sweeten to taste 1 quart of grape juice. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ pound of sugar to 1 pint of orange juice and stir until dissolved. Then add the sweetened grape juice and pour all into freezer and freeze slowly. When the sherbet is frozen beat the white of 1 egg very stiff, add 1 tablespoon of powdered sugar and beat until smooth. Add to the frozen mass in the freezer, beat briskly, repack and allow to stand 2 hours.
